TAXAND

2019 GLOBAL CONFERENCE PARIS

INVITATION
15 - 17 MAY

Please join us in Paris for the annual Taxand Global Conference where this year we will be addressing hot topics with a variety of speakers including senior officials from the OECD on 'The Future of International Tax' and 'The End of Accepted Norms in Tax'.

For the first time we will also be dedicating time in the agenda to a series of specialised workshops, these are opportunities for clients to engage in open discussion in small groups with other clients and Taxanders, sharing expertise and past experiences and looking to the future. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in up to three workshops, with each workshop involving up to 25 people.

To register for the conference please click on the link below and ensure you select your preferences for workshops.

Spaces are limited in these sessions, so please register at your earliest convenience.
